Annual Meeting Information

Proxy Statement

This proxy statement summarizes information we must provide to you under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). It is designed to assist you in voting your shares. We began mailing these proxy materials on or about March 6, 2001.

Voting

Shareholders can vote by:

- returning a completed proxy card by mail;
- delivering a completed proxy card to the inspector of election prior to the annual meeting; or
- completing a ballot and returning it to the inspector of election during the annual meeting.

If you submit a properly executed proxy card, the individuals named on the card, as your proxies, will vote your shares in the manner you indicate. If you sign and return the card without indicating your instructions, your shares will be voted for the:

- election of the five nominees to serve three-year terms on our board of directors;
- appointment of Arthur Andersen LLP as our independent auditors for 2001;
- amendment of the 1984 Key Executive Stock Option Plan; and
- approval of the Key Executive Performance Unit Plan and against the shareholder proposals to:

- declassify our board of directors; and
- separate the position of chairman of the board and chief executive officer.

You may revoke or change your proxy at any time prior to the vote at the annual meeting. To do so:

- deliver a new proxy to the independent tabulator, Corporate Election Services, Inc.;
- give us written notice of your change or revocation; or
- attend the annual meeting and vote in person.

Each share of Boise Cascade stock is entitled to one vote. As of February 26, 2001 (the record date for determining shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting), we had the following outstanding voting stock:

Type/Series of Stock	Number of Shares Outstanding
Common stock	57,340,481
Convertible preferred stock, Series D (ESOP)	4,649,507

Boise Cascade Employees Who Are Shareholders

Employees participating in the Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) fund of our Savings and Supplemental Retirement Plan (SSRP) or in the company's common stock fund in one of our savings plans will receive one proxy for all their shares in these plans. ESOP participants may instruct the plan's trustee how to vote the shares allocated to their accounts, as well as a proportionate amount of unallocated and unvoted shares. Participants in the company's common stock fund may instruct the plans' trustee how to vote the shares allocated to their accounts. If you do not provide instructions, the plans provide that the trustee will vote your shares in the same proportion as shares for which other participants have provided voting instructions.

Confidential Voting Policy

We have a confidential voting policy. Shareholders' votes on our proxy card will not be disclosed to us other than in limited situations. The tabulator will collect, tabulate, and retain all proxy cards and will forward any comments written on the proxy cards to management.

Votes Necessary for Action to be Taken

A quorum is necessary to hold a valid meeting. A quorum will exist if a majority of the shareholders entitled to cast votes at the meeting are present in person or by proxy.

The five nominees who receive the greatest number of votes at the annual meeting will be elected as directors. The appointment of Arthur Andersen LLP as our independent public accountants for 2001, approval of the 1984 Key Executive Stock Option Plan amendment, and approval of the Key Executive Performance Unit Plan require an affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast on these matters.

The shareholder proposal regarding declassifying our board of directors will be approved if the votes for the proposal exceed the votes against the proposal. Declassifying the board and reinstating an annual election of directors will not automatically occur if this proposal is approved. Eliminating board classification would require a formal amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation. Amendment of the Certificate of Incorporation requires approval by at least 80% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote.

Approval of the shareholder proposal regarding separation of the position of chairman of the board and chief executive officer requires an affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast on this matter. Separating the position of chairman of the board and chief executive officer will not automatically occur if this proposal is approved. Separation of this position would require a formal amendment to our Bylaws.

Abstentions do not count as votes cast either for or against the directors, the independent public accountants, or any of the proposals. Broker nonvotes do not count as votes cast either for or against any of the proposals.

Proxy Solicitation

We will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies. We retained D. F. King and Company Inc. to assist us in the distribution and solicitation of proxies. We will pay D. F. King a fee of $14,500, plus expenses, for these services. Proxies may also be solicited on our behalf by directors, officers, and other employees in person or by telephone or electronic transmission. We will not, however, specially compensate these persons for doing so.

Items You May Vote On

1. Election of Directors

We have five nominees for election this year. Detailed information on each nominee is provided beginning on page 10. If a nominee is unavailable for election, either we will vote the proxies for another nominee recommended by the Governance Committee and nominated by the board of directors or the board may reduce the number of directors to be elected at the meeting.

Your board unanimously recommends a vote "FOR" each of these nominees.

2. Appointment of Independent Public Accountants

Your board of directors, upon the recommendation of its Audit Committee, has appointed Arthur Andersen LLP to serve as our independent auditors for 2001, subject to shareholder approval. Arthur Andersen has served us in this capacity since 1956. Representatives of Arthur Andersen will be present at the annual meeting to answer questions. They will also have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so.

Audit services provided by Arthur Andersen during 2000 included an audit of the consolidated financial statements included in our Annual Report, audits of employee benefit plan financial statements, and a review of other filings with the SEC and other governmental agencies. For additional information regarding the services Arthur Andersen provided for us during the year, see the "Audit Committee Report" on page 19.

Your board unanimously recommends a vote "FOR" the approval of Arthur Andersen LLP as our independent auditors for 2001.

3. Amendment of 1984 Key Executive Stock Option Plan

We ask you to consider and approve an amendment, adopted by the board of directors in February 2001, to our Key Executive Stock Option Plan ("KESOP"). This amendment, subject to your approval, increases the number of shares available under the plan by 3,400,000 shares.

History and Operation of the KESOP

We use the KESOP to tie a portion of our key employees' total compensation directly to improvement in shareholder value. The KESOP also supports our ability to attract and retain highly qualified managers in key positions.

Under the KESOP, the Executive Compensation Committee of the board of directors may grant options to key employees, including executive officers, to purchase shares of the company's common stock. Nonemployees are not eligible for grants under this plan. In 2000, 25 executive officers and 302 other key employees received option grants under the plan. There are 5,843,306 shares of our common stock that remain subject to options from prior grants. We have 476,892 shares currently available for future stock option grants under the plan.

Options under the KESOP must be granted at the fair market value of the company's common stock on the date of grant. The plan does not permit "repricing" of previously granted options. No incentive stock options or tax offset bonuses have been granted under the plan. All previously granted stock appreciation rights were canceled effective May 1, 1991, and no stock appreciation rights have been granted since then.

Employees exercising an option may pay the exercise price in the form of:

- cash;
- Boise Cascade stock that has a fair market value equal to the exercise price;
- proceeds of a loan authorized by the Executive Compensation Committee; or
- any combination of the above methods (including a "cashless" broker-assisted process).

The board of directors may amend the KESOP at any time and may make adjustments to the KESOP and outstanding options, without shareholder approval, to reflect a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, or other corporate events. Shareholders, however, must approve amendments which:

- change the number of shares subject to this plan;
- change employee eligibility requirements;
- change the method of pricing options on the grant date;
- allow any member of the Executive Compensation Committee to receive an option;
- change the manner of computing the amount to be paid through a stock appreciation right;
- materially increase the cost of the KESOP to the company or the benefits to participants; or
- extend the period for granting options or stock appreciation rights.

Options may not be granted under the KESOP after July 24, 2004. The plan, however, will remain in effect until all stock subject to the plan has been purchased through the exercise of options granted under the plan.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

Under current federal law, an employee granted a stock option under the KESOP has no income tax consequences at that time. If the employee exercises an option, then at that time he or she will realize ordinary income equal to the difference between the value of the common stock and the exercise price. In general, shares acquired by exercising an option have a basis equal to the market value of the stock on the date of exercise. When an employee exercises an option, the company is entitled to a federal income tax deduction in the same amount as the employee's realized income.

Proposed Plan Amendment

This amendment increases the number of shares available under the plan by 3,400,000 shares.

The board believes this amendment is essential to maintain our balanced and competitive total compensation program. Without this amendment, we would not have sufficient shares available under the plan to provide for continued option grants in 2001 and beyond, consistent with the purpose of the plan and our normal compensation practices. In order to maintain the continuity and consistency of the program, the board recommends amending the plan to authorize additional shares.

This amendment will not be effective unless it is approved by our shareholders.

Additional Information

As of February 26, 2001, the closing price of our common stock on the New York Stock Exchange was $32.11 per share. We cannot determine the number of options under the KESOP that will be granted in 2001 to specific officers, officers as a group, or nonofficer employees as a group. The plan, however, does not permit grants to any one individual, during the life of the plan, of options to purchase more than 15% of the total number of shares authorized for issuance under the plan. You can find more information regarding options granted and exercised under the KESOP on page 26 under "Stock Option Tables." The tables show the stock options granted under the KESOP to our employees and executive officers in 2000. These amounts would have been the same under the proposed amendment. A copy of the plan is on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends a Vote "FOR" the Approval of the Amendment to the Key Executive Stock Option Plan.

4. Approve Key Executive Performance Unit Plan

We ask you to consider and approve the adoption of the Key Executive Performance Unit Plan ("KEPUP") so that Boise Cascade will be entitled to deduct, as compensation expense, amounts paid to executives under this plan.

Description of the Key Executive Performance Unit Plan

The company relies on its long-term incentive compensation program to attract and retain the key executives essential for its continuing success. The program is also designed to incent performance that adds to long-term shareholder value. For a number of years, this long-term incentive compensation has been provided solely through stock options granted under the KESOP.

We periodically review the program to assess whether it is continuing to promote these objectives. As a result of a review during 2000, the Executive Compensation Committee adopted the KEPUP in February 2001. It will reduce the amount of long-term compensation provided through the KESOP and add an element of long-term compensation which may be earned if the company's financial performance compares favorably to that achieved by our key business competitors. Our key business competitors, for this purpose, include all the companies which comprise the Standard & Poor's paper and forest products company index used for comparison purposes in our performance graph, plus several other companies chosen because they have comparable distribution businesses. The KEPUP is not intended to increase the total long-term incentive compensation paid to executives over time. It is intended to add incentives to achieve financial benchmarks that exceed the financial performance of these competitors and to encourage participants to remain in the company's service.

Implementation of the KEPUP does not require shareholder approval. For us to be able to fully deduct compensation paid to our executive officers under the KEPUP, however, federal tax laws require that our shareholders approve the material features of the plan. A copy of the KEPUP is on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The KEPUP will help reduce the potential dilutive effect, over time, of our stock options and will help our compensation program be more competitive in the employment market. By using improvement in economic value added as the financial measure and comparing the company's financial performance against that of our key competitors, the new plan will continue to link the executive's long-term compensation with improvements in long-term shareholder value.

Under the program, participants will be granted Performance Units. The value of each Performance Unit will be paid as additional cash compensation based on the company's financial performance over rolling three-year periods, measured by "economic value added," and compared to the financial performance of a key competitor group. "Economic value added" is determined by calculating our pretax operating profit and then subtracting a charge for the capital used to generate that profit. Unless the company meets at least minimum relative performance standards, the Performance Units will have no value. Each Performance Unit has a maximum potential value of $2.25. The number of Performance Units granted to each executive officer is based on a target value of $1.00 per unit, which will be earned if the company's three-year improvement in economic value added is better than half the competitor group's economic value added improvement.

Actual payments under the program, if any, will vary from year to year, depending on our financial performance over each three-year period and how it compares with the competitor group's performance.

We cannot determine the number of Performance Units that either will be granted in 2001 or would have been granted in 2000, if the KEPUP had been in effect, to specific officers or officers as a group. Under the plan, however, no executive officer may be granted more than 1,500,000 Performance Units in any one year.

The value, if any, of the Performance Units to be granted in 2001 will be determined by the company's financial performance during the period 2001-2003 relative to the competitor group's financial performance during the same period, measured by improvement in economic value added.

If the Performance Units granted under the plan have value at the end of the three-year period, participants may elect to defer receipt of all or a portion of the amount earned under the terms of our Key Executive Deferred Compensation Plan. These deferred amounts become unfunded general obligations of Boise Cascade. Deferred amounts are either credited with interest at a rate based on Moody's Corporate Bond Index or credited with Stock Units. A copy of the Key Executive Deferred Compensation Plan is also on file with the Securities Exchange Commission. In the event of a change in control, as defined in the plan, a trust will pay the previously deferred awards. For more information on this trust, see "Deferred Compensation and Benefits Trust" on page 32.

The Executive Compensation Committee is responsible for overseeing the administration of the KEPUP. The committee may amend or terminate the plan at any time, but any amendment or termination may not adversely affect a participant's earned or accrued benefits.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

Cash amounts received by executives under the KEPUP are subject to income taxation in the year received. Boise Cascade will be entitled to deduct, as compensation expense, amounts paid to executives under this plan if it is approved by shareholders.

The Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends a Vote "FOR" the Approval of the Key Executive Performance Unit Plan.

5. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Classified Board

In October 2000, we received a shareholder proposal to declassify our board of directors.

Proposal

Gail H. Rowe, c/o Morgan Stanley Dean Witter, 1087 West River Street, Suite 300, Boise, Idaho 83707, who owns 200 shares of Boise Cascade common stock, has given us notice that she intends to present the following proposal at the annual meeting.

RESOLVED, that the stockholders of Boise Cascade Corp. urge the board to take the necessary steps to amend the Company's Bylaws, in compliance with applicable law, to reorganize itself into one class. The reorganization shall be done in a manner that does not affect the unexpired terms of directors previously elected.

Statement by Shareholder in Support of the Proposal

Accountability by the board of directors is of paramount importance to shareholders. This proposal aims to eliminate the Company's so-called "classified board," whereby the directors are divided into three classes, each serving a three-year term. Under the current structure, shareholders can only vote on one-third of the board at any given time. By classifying itself, a board insulates its members from immediate challenge. Insularity may have made sense in the past (e.g., during the takeover frenzy of the 1980s). But now, we believe that insularity works primarily to hamper accountability. A classified board can prevent shareholders from mounting a successful opposition to the entire board, because only one-third of the directors are up for election in any given year. By way of contrast, a declassified board would stand for election in its entirety, every year. Many thoughtful investors believe that corporate governance procedures and practices, and the level of accountability they impose, are closely related to financial performance. It is intuitive that, when directors are accountable for their actions, they perform better. Boise Cascade's financial performance has disappointed. This resolution is intended to improve that performance through this structural reorganization of the board. If the board acts on our proposal, shareholders would have the opportunity to register their views at each annual meeting—on performance of the board as a whole, and of each director as an individual.

Statement by Directors in Opposition to the Proposal

In 1985, the company's shareholders voted overwhelmingly to create a classified board. At that time, the board cited two primary benefits of a classified board structure:

- First, a classified board would provide the assurance of continuity, stability, and knowledge in the business affairs and financial strategies of the company, because a majority of the directors would always have prior experience as directors of the company. This continuity of directors would ensure that the board had the necessary background and knowledge to handle these issues and others in a way that would best enhance shareholder value.
- Second, with staggered elections, at least two annual shareholder meetings would be required to change control of the board of directors. This fact would enhance the board's ability to negotiate with a person or entity seeking to gain control of the company. This enhanced negotiating leverage would put the board in a better position to achieve higher shareholder value if a change in control situation were to arise.

In 2000, a shareholder proposal by Dr. John Osborn to declassify the board received a majority of shareholder votes cast for and against the proposal (although less than a majority of all outstanding shares). An 80% affirmative vote of all outstanding shares would be required to amend the Certificate of Incorporation to eliminate the classified board provision.

Since the shareholder vote of 2000, your board has once again considered the classified board structure. After lengthy and thoughtful consideration and discussion, the board has concluded that the classified board structure continues to be in the best interests of the company and its shareholders. The majority vote at the company's last annual meeting was given considerable weight in the board's discussion. Nevertheless, the board observed the current climate of rapid consolidation in our industry and the merger and takeover activity associated with that consolidation. Indeed, substantial consolidation activity has taken place since the 2000 annual meeting.

Given the recent consolidation in the industry, the board noted that the classified structure is perhaps even more important now than it was at the time of its adoption 15 years ago. A classified structure provides the board with the ability to protect shareholder interests in the event of a change of control. This fact is exemplified by the recent proposed acquisition of Willamette by Weyerhaeuser. A November 14, 2000, Wall Street Journal article noted that Willamette's classified board structure gave Willamette additional time to negotiate with Weyerhaeuser for a higher price.

The board believes that each of the company's directors is accountable to the company's shareholders, whether he or she is elected for a one-year term or for a three-year term. Board classification does not prevent shareholders from voting for or against directors when they are presented for election. Except for our chairman of the board, all of our directors are independent. Additionally, all of our directors have received high shareholder support: no nominee received less than 96% of the votes cast in the last five years. More frequent votes for each director are unnecessary.

Your board understands that this issue continues to be important to many of the company's shareholders. In recognition of this interest in board structure and other governance issues, the board formed a Governance Committee in December 2000. The committee is made up entirely of independent directors and is charged with, among other things, reviewing corporate governance issues and addressing related shareholder concerns. The Governance Committee will continue to periodically review the classified board to evaluate whether such a structure continues to serve the best interests of the company and its shareholders.

The Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends a Vote "AGAINST" the Proposal to Declassify Boise Cascade's Board.

6. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Separation of Position of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

In November 2000, we received a shareholder proposal to separate the position of chairman of the board and chief executive officer.

Proposal

John Osborn, M.D., 2421 W. Mission Avenue, Spokane, Washington 99201, who owns 105 shares of Boise Cascade common stock, has given us notice that he intends to present the following proposal at the annual meeting.

RESOLVED: That shareholders urge the board to take the necessary steps to provide that two separate people hold the positions of Chair of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

Statement by Shareholder in Support of the Proposal

Under the present chair/CEO's tenure, (CEO since 1994, and chairman since 1995), the stock has performed poorly, significantly below the S&P 500, the Dow, and its peers.

Any board must rely on its chair to help it filter information, and to present circumstances fairly so as to make important and sometimes difficult decisions. The present chair is a veteran of BC, well educated (Ph.D, various advanced Harvard business degrees), presumably persuasive in the board room.

Board of directors, led by the chair, oversee management. Some view an insoluble conflict when the director is also the manager being overseen and many institutional investors support independent boards. Funds across the country support a separation of the positions of chair and CEO, from CalPERS to the state Treasurer of Connecticut and others.

I urge to you support this measure.

Statement by Directors in Opposition to the Proposal

Our company has a long tradition of an independent board consisting primarily of outsiders not employed by the company. All members of our board are independent, outside directors, except our chief executive officer, Mr. Harad. The chair of our Committee of Outside Directors, Mr. Shrontz, leads a meeting of this committee, which includes all outside directors, at least twice a year to review the company's strategy and performance outside the presence of Mr. Harad. The committee also has a formal process to review the CEO's performance against agreed-upon goals. In addition, the Audit, Executive Compensation, and Governance Committees are each composed solely of outside directors, providing extensive independent review.

The board of directors is strengthened by the presence of Mr. Harad, who provides strategic, operational, and technical expertise and context for the matters considered by the board. Our board believes it needs to retain the ability to balance independent board structure with the flexibility to determine board leadership. The board believes this proposal is not in the best interest of the company or its shareholders.

The Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends a Vote "AGAINST" the Proposal to Separate the Position of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

7. Other Matters to be Presented at the Meeting

Management does not know of any other matters to be voted on at the meeting. If, however, other matters are presented for a vote at the meeting, the persons named on the enclosed proxy card will vote your properly executed proxy according to their judgment on those matters.

Board of Directors

Structure

Mr. Robert K. Jaedicke is retiring from the board in April because he reached our mandatory retirement age for directors. We thank Mr. Jaedicke for his many years of thoughtful counsel and loyal service to our board.

Our board of directors, comprised of 14 persons after Mr. Jaedicke's retirement, is divided into three classes for purposes of election. Shareholders elect one class at each annual meeting to serve for a three-year term.

Five directors are nominees for reelection in 2001, each to hold office until the annual meeting of shareholders in 2004.

Our other directors are not up for election this year and will continue in office for the remainder of their terms or until they retire.

Directors Nominated This Year for Terms Expiring in 2004

Philip J. Carroll, 63, joined our board of directors in 1997. Since 1998, Mr. Carroll has been the chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Fluor Corporation, a global engineering, construction, maintenance, and diversified services company. He was the president and chief executive officer of Shell Oil Company from 1993 to 1998. Mr. Carroll is also a director of Vulcan Materials Company.

Claire S. Farley, 43, joined our board of directors in 2000. She was the chief executive officer of Intelligent Diagnostics, Inc., an Internet-based developer of artificial intelligence software used to diagnose medical conditions, from 1999 to 2000. Ms. Farley was a corporate officer for Texaco, Inc., from 1997 to 1999, having been with the company since 1981. Business Relationships with Directors

Donald S. Macdonald was of counsel to the law firm of McCarthy Tétrault, located in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, until he retired from this position on March 1, 2000. We and some of our affiliates occasionally used McCarthy Tétrault's services in 2000 to advise us on Canadian legal matters. We expect to do the same in 2001. We retain this firm independent of Mr. Macdonald's service on our board of directors, and Mr. Macdonald derived no financial benefit from our use of McCarthy Tétrault.

Meetings and Committees of the Board

During 2000, our board of directors met seven times. In addition to meetings of the full board, directors also attended meetings of board committees. All the directors, except Mr. Carroll, attended at least 75% of the meetings of the board and the committees on which they served. Overall, our directors had an attendance rate of 90%.

Committee of Outside Directors

The Committee of Outside Directors reviews the performance of the chief executive officer against his individual and corporate goals and strategies. It also reviews the performance and processes of the board of directors and evaluates the communication among the board, management, and shareholders. The committee meets at least twice each year without Mr. Harad (our only management director) present.

Executive Committee

In the absence of a full meeting of the board, the Executive Committee can exercise most of the powers and authority of the full board to manage our business and affairs.

Executive Compensation Committee

The Executive Compensation Committee is comprised entirely of independent directors. It approves all executive officer compensation, including salaries, incentives, stock options, stock grants, and all plans providing benefits to our executive officers. The committee also periodically reviews business and staff organizations to ensure that capable personnel are available to implement the company's business strategies. For additional information regarding the Executive

Compensation Committee and its functions and responsibilities, see the "Executive Compensation Committee Report" on page 21.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee, in keeping with its charter, is comprised entirely of independent directors. It provides independent, objective oversight of the company's accounting functions and internal controls and ensures the objectivity of our financial statements. For additional information regarding the Audit Committee and its functions and responsibilities, see the "Audit Committee Report" on page 19.

Governance Committee

The Governance Committee (formerly the Nominating Committee), comprised entirely of independent directors, is responsible for reviewing and recommending to the board:

- candidates for nomination;
- director compensation;
- responses to shareholder proposals;
- board and committee structure; and
- corporate governance policies, practices, and procedures.

The board of directors has established qualifications for directors, including the ability to apply good and independent judgment in a business situation and the ability to represent the interests of all our shareholders and constituencies. A director also must be free from any conflicts of interest that would interfere with his or her loyalty to our shareholders and us. In evaluating board candidates, the committee considers these qualifications as well as several other factors, including but not limited to:

- demonstrated maturity and experience;
- geographic balance;
- expertise in business areas relevant to Boise Cascade;
- background as an educator in business, economics, or the sciences; and
- diversity of background, with particular consideration to female and minority candidates.

Director Compensation

Our current board members, except Mr. Harad (a salaried employee of Boise Cascade), receive compensation for board service. In 2000, that compensation included:

Annual Retainer:	$40,000
Annual Committee Chair Stipend:	$6,500
Attendance Fees:	$1,500 for each board meeting $1,000 for each committee meeting Expenses related to attendance
Annual Stock Options:	2,000

Director Stock Option Plan

Through our shareholder-approved Director Stock Option Plan, each nonemployee director receives an annual stock option grant. The options are exercisable one year after the grant date, and they expire the earlier of (a) three years after the director's retirement, resignation, death, or termination as a director or (b) ten years after the grant date. Individuals who are directors on January 1, or who are appointed between January 1 and July 31, receive a grant on July 31. Directors appointed between August 1 and December 31 receive a grant when they join our board.

In 2000, each nonemployee director was granted an option to purchase 2,000 shares of our common stock at a price equal to the stock's closing market price on the grant date.

Director Stock Compensation Plan

Through our shareholder-approved Director Stock Compensation Plan, nonemployee directors can elect to receive part or all of their retainers and meeting fees in stock options rather than cash. Under the plan, the directors must specify by December 31 of each year how much of their retainer and meeting fees for the following year they wish to receive in the form of stock options.

Options are granted to participating directors at the end of each calendar year, equal in value to the cash compensation that the participating directors would otherwise have received. The number of option shares granted to a participating director is based on the amount of compensation he or she elected to have paid in options and the market value of our common stock on July 31 of each year. The options have an exercise price of $2.50 per share, can be exercised six months after the date of grant, and expire three years after the director's resignation, retirement, or termination as director. Ten of the 14 eligible directors participated in this plan in 2000, and nine directors have elected to participate in the plan in 2001.

Director Deferred Compensation Program

Our directors' deferred compensation program allows each nonemployee director to defer all or a portion of his or her cash compensation.

Under this program, nonemployee directors may defer from a minimum of $5,000 to a maximum of 100% of their cash compensation in a calendar year. For deferrals prior to 1988, interest is imputed on the deferred amount at a monthly rate equal to Moody's Composite Average of Yields on Corporate Bonds plus four percentage points. For deferrals from 1988 to the present, interest is imputed at a rate equal to 130% of Moody's Composite Average of Yields on Corporate Bonds. A minimum death benefit is also provided based on pre-1995 deferrals. We have purchased corporate-owned life insurance policies to help offset the expense of this program. In the event of a change in control of the company, as defined in the plans, a trust will pay our obligations under these plans. For more information on this trust, see "Deferred Compensation and Benefits Trust" on page 32.

As of December 31, 2000, nine directors participated in the deferred compensation program.

Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee of the board of directors is responsible for independent, objective oversight of the company's accounting functions and internal controls. It is comprised entirely of independent directors as required by the New York Stock Exchange listing standards and by its written charter, attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A.

The Audit Committee, formed in 1969, has had a charter since 1973. The committee periodically reviews and updates that charter based on changes in its responsibilities. In 2000, the Audit Committee updated its charter to reflect the new standards set out in the SEC's regulations and in the New York Stock Exchange's listing standards. These changes reflected increased specificity in its charter rather than changes in the committee's overall practices.

Audit Committee Responsibilities

The Audit Committee's responsibilities include recommending to the board an independent certified public accounting firm as the company's independent auditor. The committee, with management, internal audit personnel, and/or the independent auditors, also evaluates and reviews the company's:

- financial statements, reports, and other financial information;
- systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance, and business standards established by management and the board; and auditing, accounting, and financial reporting processes in general.

The committee is also responsible for reviewing the scope of audit and nonaudit services provided by the independent auditor and any significant related party transactions between the company and any officer, director, or principal shareholder not otherwise considered by the board.

Financial Statement Recommendation

The Audit Committee is responsible for recommending to the board that the company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K. The committee took a number of steps in making this recommendation for 2000, including discussing with Arthur Andersen LLP, Boise Cascade's independent auditor, the:

- applicable auditing standards, including information regarding the scope and results of the audit, as required by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61; and
- auditor's independence, including receipt of a letter from Arthur Andersen regarding its independence, as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees.

As the final step to this procedure, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with Arthur Andersen and Boise Cascade's management the company's audited consolidated balance sheets at December 31, 2000 and 1999, and its audited consolidated statements of income, cash flows, and stockholders' equity for the three years ended December 31, 2000.

Based on the discussions with the company's management regarding the audited financial statements and Arthur Andersen regarding its audit, independence, and financial statement review, the Audit Committee recommended to the board that these financial statements be included in Boise Cascade's 2000 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Nonaudit and Other Services

In addition to its audit services for the annual financial statements, Arthur Andersen provides Boise Cascade with nonaudit and other services (such as foreign statutory reporting; audits of the company's employee benefit plans; various advisory and consulting services, including tax consultation and compliance services; acquisition due diligence and consulting; and technical research and consultation). The committee reviews and discusses the scope of these additional services with Arthur Andersen. Based on this review, the committee believes that Arthur Andersen's provision of its nonaudit services is compatible with maintaining its independence.

The following table sets out the various fees paid by the company to Arthur Andersen for its services.

Annual Fees for 2000

Description	Amount
Audit Fees(1)	$ 1,411,000
Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees(2)	0
All Other Fees(3)	1,215,000

(1) Professional audit services, including Arthur Andersen's audit of the company's annual financial statements for 2000 and its review of the financial statements included in the company's Forms 10-Q.

(2) Boise Cascade did not retain Arthur Andersen's services in 2000 for the design and implementation of any of its financial information systems.

(3) All nonaudit and other services (such as foreign statutory reporting; audits of the company's employee benefit plans; various advisory and consulting services, including tax consultation and compliance services; acquisition due diligence and consulting; and technical research and consultation).

Leased Personnel

Arthur Andersen's full-time, permanent employees conducted the audit of the company's 2000 financial statements. Leased personnel were not employed with respect to this audit engagement.

This report is respectfully submitted by the members of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors:

Executive Compensation Committee Report

The Executive Compensation Committee of the board of directors approves the individual salaries and compensation programs for executive officers. The following report explains the basis for the committee's compensation decisions during 2000.

The company's salary policy provides for compensation at competitive levels for all employees. Our executive compensation program is designed to:

- attract, motivate, reward, and retain the broad-based management talent critical to achieving the company's business goals;
- link a portion of each executive officer's compensation to the performance of both the company and the individual executive officer; and
- encourage ownership of company common stock by executive officers.

To ensure that compensation levels remain competitive, the company and committee analyze information on executive compensation practices from a wide variety of sources. Compensation practices and data throughout general industry and at paper and forest products companies are analyzed. The committee also assesses compensation practices and data from a representative peer group of companies designed by our consultants. This peer group's compensation practices were only nominally different than the compensation practices of the paper and forest products companies.

In addition, the company and committee used information regarding executive compensation programs provided by human resource consulting firms, including Hewitt Associates, Management Compensation Group, and Stern Stewart & Co.

In 2000, the company's executive compensation program had four principal components:

- base salary;
- annual variable incentive compensation;
- stock options; and
- other compensation plans.

During 2000, the cash-based annual variable (at-risk) incentive component linked executive compensation directly to the company's financial performance, and the stock option component tied executive compensation to growth in its stock value.

The company's compensation plans reflect the committee's intent that the compensation paid to executive officers will qualify for federal income tax deduction by the company. Executive compensation decisions, however, necessarily involve some subjective judgment. The committee reserves the authority to make compensation payments that may not be deductible under federal tax law.

Base Salary

A salary guideline is established for each salaried position in the company, including each executive officer position. The midpoint of each salary guideline approximates the average salary, adjusted for company size (in sales), of equivalent positions at the peer group companies. Annual base salary is designed to compensate executives for their level of responsibility and sustained individual performance. In weighing these factors, the committee must make inherently subjective judgments.

Each year, the committee reviews the criteria discussed above and establishes the chief executive officer's base salary. The chief executive officer's performance is formally reviewed against a written performance plan. In 2000, the committee set Mr. Harad's base salary at $900,012 per year, reflecting his 30 years of experience with the company and the performance of his responsibilities as chief executive and chief operating officer.

Annual Variable Incentive Compensation

The committee establishes objective performance criteria for the variable incentive compensation program. This program applies to all of the company's salaried employees. The committee oversees administration of the plan covering executive officers.

The criteria for the program specify percentages of the participants' compensation to be paid as additional cash compensation based on improvements in the company's "economic value added." Economic value added is determined by calculating the company's operating profit and then subtracting a pretax charge for the capital used to generate that profit. For the company, studies indicate that increases in economic value added have a high positive correlation to increases in shareholder value over time.

The committee establishes target payouts for each participating position using the average bonus targets, adjusted for company size (in sales), of equivalent positions at the peer group companies. In 2000, the target payout for the chief executive officer was 70% of his base salary. The committee, beginning in program year 2001, revised this target to 100%, thereby placing a greater portion of Mr. Harad's cash compensation at risk. The actual payout under the plan varies from year to year depending on the company's annual financial performance. Target payout amounts for executive officers and other plan participants also vary, depending on competitive compensation practices.

Under the 2000 program, Mr. Harad received a payment equal to 13.38% of his base salary, as reported in the Summary Compensation Table on page 25. The Summary Compensation Table reflects amounts paid under this variable incentive program.

Stock Options

The purpose of the stock option plan is to further align management's interests with the company's long-term performance and, therefore, the long-term interests of the shareholders. The committee grants stock options to executive officers and other key managers. It administers this plan and generally grants stock options to plan participants each year. Stock options were granted under this plan in 2000. Since the exercise price of all grants represents the fair market value of the common stock when granted, the options have no value unless the common stock price exceeds the exercise price of the options.

The committee determines the number of stock options to grant by:

- analyzing peer group companies' competitive compensation;
- considering consultants' recommendations; and
- taking each individual's salary guideline and responsibilities into account.

The committee may also consider the number and exercise price of options granted to an individual in the past, as well as individual performance throughout the year. Corporate or business unit measures are not used to determine the size of individual option grants.

The stock option plan limits the number of shares issued to any individual over the life of the plan to 15% of the total number of shares authorized by shareholders for issuance under the plan.

This provision reflects the committee's view that the plan is intended to provide long-term incentive compensation to a broad spectrum of the company's management.

During 2000, Mr. Harad was granted options to purchase 263,900 shares of the company's common stock. In determining the number of shares to include in Mr. Harad's grant, the committee considered:

- the value of stock option grants made to chairpersons and chief executive officers of the peer group companies;
- the size of grants offered to the company's other executive officers; and
- the number and exercise price of shares previously granted to Mr. Harad.

As described on page 5, the committee approved the addition of the Key Executive Performance Unit Plan to the company's long-term incentive program, beginning in 2001.

Other Compensation Plans

The company's executive officers receive additional compensation in the form of payments, allocations, or accruals under various other compensation and benefit plans. The plans are described more fully in the footnotes to the Summary Compensation Table and on page 29 under "Other Benefit Plans." Each of these plans is an integral part of the company's compensation program.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

In 1999, the committee established stock ownership guidelines for executive officers. These guidelines are intended to increase the officers' equity stake in the company and more closely align their interests with those of our shareholders. These voluntary guidelines provide that, over time:

- the chief executive officer should acquire and maintain stock ownership equal to three times his base salary;

the senior vice presidents should acquire and maintain stock ownership equal to twice their base salary; and the vice presidents should acquire and maintain stock ownership equal to their base salary.

All of our executive officers either meet or have made significant progress toward meeting the stock ownership guidelines.

This report is respectfully submitted by the members of the Executive Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors:

*David Spence, our beloved colleague and friend, passed away in October 2000.

- (1) Includes amounts deferred under the company's SSRP and Executive Officer Deferred Compensation Plans.
- (2) Payments, if any, under the company's variable incentive compensation program. See "Annual Variable Incentive Compensation" on page 22. In addition, the amount reported for Mr. Milliken in 2000 includes $120,750 earned under the Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation (BCOP) Key Executive Retention and Incentive Plan which was adopted by the company in connection with its repurchase of BCOP's outstanding minority interest.
- (3) The amounts shown in this column reflect the amount of federal income tax incurred by the named executive and paid by the company relating to various executive officer benefits. The cost incurred by the company during these years for various other perquisites provided to each of the named executive officers is not included in this column, because the amount did not exceed the lesser of $50,000 or 10% of the executive's compensation during each year.
- (4) Grants under the company's Key Executive Stock Option Plan. During 1998 and 1999, Mr. Milliken was granted options under BCOP's Key Executive Stock Option Plan to purchase 90,000 shares and 118,000 shares, respectively, of BCOP's common stock. Any options not exercised prior to completion of the company's repurchase of BCOP's outstanding minority interest were canceled.

- (*) The company's Executive Officer Deferred Compensation Plans are unfunded plans. Under these plans, executive officers may irrevocably elect to defer receipt of a portion (6% to 20%) of their base salary until termination of employment or beyond. Amounts deferred through December 31, 2000, are generally credited with imputed interest at a rate equal to 130% of Moody's Composite Average of Yields on Corporate Bonds or, under the company's 1995 Executive Officer Deferred Compensation Plan, with either imputed interest or stock units. Each stock unit is equal in value to one share of the company's common stock. The company makes an additional contribution to each participant's stock unit account equal to 25% of the participant's contribution. Amounts reflected in this column do not include the company's contribution to the listed officers' stock unit accounts. Company contributions are set out in the Long-Term Incentive Plans table on page 28. The company's SSRP is a profit-sharing plan qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code which contains a cash or deferred arrangement meeting the requirements of Section 401(k) of the Code.

Stock Option Tables

This table details the 2000 option grants under our Key Executive Stock Option Plan ("KESOP") to the six executives named in the Summary Compensation Table, as well as to all executive officers as a group and nonofficer employees as a group.

Nonofficer employees as a group	914,571	52.36	27.61	4/21/10- 7/28/10	7,097,226

(1) Under the KESOP, the exercise price must be the fair market value at the date of grant. Options granted under this plan during 2000 were fully vested when granted. Except under limited circumstances, however, the options are not exercisable until one year after the date of the grant. Under the plan, no options may be granted after July 24, 2004. The exercise price of options granted to executive officers as a group and nonofficer employees as a group is the weighted average of options granted during 2000.

(2) "Grant Date Present Value" has been calculated using the Black-Scholes model of option valuation, with assumptions of: (a) a risk-free interest rate of 6%, (b) expected stock price volatility of 30%, (c) expected option term of 4.2 years, and (d) expected dividends of $0.60/share. Based on this model, the calculated values of the options on July 27, 2000, and September 27, 2000 (grant dates), are $7.72 and $6.73 per share granted. This value does not necessarily represent the amount an option holder may ultimately realize upon exercise of an option.

The following table sets forth the shares acquired and gross value (without adjustment for personal income taxes and fees, if any) realized by the top six executives when they exercised their stock options during 2000 and also states the year-end gross value of unexercised stock options held by these executives.

Aggregate Option/SAR Exercises for 2000 and 2000 Option/SAR Values

A. Ben Groce	0	0	122,200/ 39,100	544,175/ 280,738

(1) The "value realized" represents the difference between the option's exercise price and the value of the company's common stock at the time of exercise. For Mr. Milliken, this figure represents the value realized on the exercise of BCOP stock options in conjunction with the completion of the company's repurchase of BCOP's outstanding minority interest.

(2) This column indicates the aggregate amount, if any, by which the common stock share price on December 29, 2000, $33.625, exceeded the options' exercise price.

Long-Term Incentive Plans Table

This table details the stock units contributed by the company during 2000 under our 1995 Executive Officer Deferred Compensation Plan ("DCP") and Key Executive Performance Plan ("KEPP") to the six executives named in the Summary Compensation Table. The company's contribution is equal to 25% of each participant's contribution to the stock unit account in the plans. Each stock unit is equal in value to the market value of one share of the company's common stock. Stock units accumulate "dividends" similar to normal stock ownership. These dividends are included in the figures set out in this table.

Long-Term Incentive Plans—Awards in 2000

Name	Number of Units— DCP (1)	Number of Units— KEPP (2)	Performance Period Until Maturation (3)
George J. Harad	490	0	2000-2004
Christopher C. Milliken	0	0	2000-2004

John W. Holleran	858	0	2000-2004
A. Ben Groce	480	0	2000-2004

- (1) The company's DCP is an unfunded plan pursuant to which executive officers may irrevocably elect to defer receipt of a portion (6% to 20%) of their base salary until termination of employment or beyond. Amounts deferred through December 31, 2000, are credited either with (a) interest at a rate equal to 130% of Moody's Composite Average of Yields on Corporate Bonds or (b) stock units.
- (2) The company's KEPP is an unfunded variable compensation plan pursuant to which executive officers may irrevocably elect to defer all or a portion of any payout. Deferred amounts are credited either with (a) interest at the prime rate offered by the Bank of America NT & SA each January 1 or (b) stock units.
- (3) These stock units vest 20% per year over a five-year period. They may be paid out (in shares of company common stock) only after a participant's employment with the company has ended.

Other Benefit Plans

Deferred Compensation

Under our 1982 Executive Officer Deferred Compensation Plan, executive officers elected before January 1, 1987, could defer between 6% and 10% of their total compensation earned during a period of four years. In addition, each participant could elect to have an amount up to 3.6% of his or her compensation imputed to deferrals under the plan in lieu of matching contributions to the Savings and Supplemental Retirement Plan ("SSRP"). This plan is not funded, and its cost is largely offset by participant salary deferrals.

The benefit payable to each participant under this plan upon retirement at age 65 is determined by the amount of salary deferred, any amount we have contributed, and the number of years to normal retirement age at the time of contribution. We pay the benefits in equal monthly installments up to 15 years. Participants may also elect to receive their accrued balance in a lump sum, but they will incur a 10% penalty and will be suspended from making contributions to any of our deferred compensation plans for a period of 12 months.

The following table outlines the contributions and benefits under this plan for Mr. Harad as of December 31, 2000.

Name	Projected Years of Service Upon Attainment of Age 65	Participant's Total Contribution	Annual Benefit at Age 65
George J. Harad	38	$ 87,225	$ 118,120

The estimated annual benefits payable upon retirement at age 65 under this plan for specified high-five-year average remuneration and years-of-service classifications are set out in the following table.

The pension plan entitles each vested employee, including executive officers, to receive a pension benefit at normal retirement equal to 1¹/₄% of the average of the highest five consecutive years of compensation (as defined in the plan) out of the last ten years of employment, multiplied by the employee's years of service.

Under the plan, "compensation" is the employee's base salary plus any amounts earned under the company's variable incentive compensation programs (only "Salary" and "Bonus" from the Summary Compensation Table). As of December 31, 2000, the average of the highest five consecutive years of compensation for 1991 through 2000 and the years of service for the named executives are as follows:

Name	Compensation	Years of Service
George J. Harad	$ 1,403,912	30
Christopher C. Milliken	521,225	23
N. David Spence	512,299	24
Theodore Crumley	514,414	30
John W. Holleran	425,757	22
A. Ben Groce	394,096	21

As shown in the Pension Plan Table above, benefits are computed on a straight-life annuity basis and are not offset by social security or other retirement-type benefits. An employee is 100% vested in his or her pension benefit after five years of service, except for breaks in service. If an employee is entitled to a greater benefit under the plan's formula than the Internal Revenue Code allows for tax-qualified plans, the excess benefits will be paid from the company's general assets under the unfunded Supplemental Pension Plan. The Supplemental Pension Plan will also provide payments to the extent that participation in these deferred compensation plans has the effect of reducing an individual's pension benefit under the qualified plan.

In the event of a change in control (as defined in the plan), the plan restricts our ability or our successor's ability to recoup surplus plan assets, if any exist. In general, after a change in control, the participants and beneficiaries will receive the plan's surplus assets, if any, on a pro rata basis if the plan is terminated, merged or consolidated with another plan, or the assets are transferred to another plan. After a change in control, a majority (in both number and interest) of plan participants and beneficiaries must consent to amend this provision.

Supplemental Early Retirement Plan

The Supplemental Early Retirement Plan applies to executive officers:

- 55 years old or older;
- who have ten or more years of service;
- who have served as an executive officer for at least five full years; and
- who retire before age 65.

Eligible officers receive an early retirement benefit prior to age 65 equal to the benefit calculated under the Pension Plan for Salaried Employees without reduction due to the officer's early retirement.

Executive Officer Agreements

Our executive officers have agreements that formalize their severance benefits if the executive officer is terminated after a change in control of the company (as defined in the agreement). The agreements provide severance benefits and protect other benefits that the officers have already earned or reasonably expect to receive under our employee benefit plans. The officer will receive the benefits provided under the agreement if, after a change in control, the officer's employment is terminated other than for cause or disability (as defined in the agreement) or if the officer terminates employment after actions (as specified in the agreement) that adversely affect the officer are taken.

Under the agreement, the officer must remain employed with us for six months following the first potential change in control.

These agreements help ensure that we will have the benefit of these officers' services without distraction in the face of a potential change in control. The board of directors believes that the agreements are in the best interests of our shareholders and the company.

The benefits under the agreements include:

- the officer's salary through the termination date;
- severance pay equal to three times the officer's annual base salary and target incentive pay, less any severance pay that the officer receives under the Severance Pay Policy for Executive Officers, which is currently the amount of the officer's annual base salary;

vacation pay according to our Vacation Policy;

- any earned but unpaid bonus under the Key Executive Performance Plan (or any substitute plan) for the year preceding termination;

- an award under the Key Executive Performance Plan (or any substitute plan) equal to the greater of:

- (a) the officer's target award prorated through the month in which the officer is terminated; or

- (b) the actual award through the end of the month prior to termination based upon the award criteria for the applicable plan, prorated through the month in which the officer is terminated;

- benefits under the Supplemental Early Retirement Plan; and

- additional retirement and other employee benefits.

The agreements provide four additional benefits. First, we will maintain for up to one year all employee benefit plans and programs in which the officer was entitled to participate immediately prior to termination or we will substitute similar arrangements. Second, we will maintain our participation in the Split-Dollar Life Insurance Plan until the officer's insurance policy under that plan is fully paid. Third, we will pay legal fees and expenses that the officer incurs to enforce his or her rights or benefits under the agreement. Fourth, we will increase the officer's total payments under the agreement to cover any excise taxes imposed by the Internal Revenue Service as a result of such payments.

The estimated amount of payments and other benefits (not including legal fees, if any) each named executive officer would receive under the agreement based on 2000 compensation figures (in excess of the benefits to which the officer is entitled without the agreement) is:

• George J. Harad	$	6,613,512
• Christopher C. Milliken		2,769,446
• N. David Spence		1,814,784
• Theodore Crumley		2,329,595
• John W. Holleran		2,442,999
• A. Ben Groce		1,841,309

(Payments which would be made subsequent to the termination date have been discounted as of December 31, 2000, at a rate of 6.95%, according to the requirements of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.) Actual payments made under the agreements at any future date would vary, depending in part upon what the executive has accrued under the variable compensation plans and benefit plans and upon the market price of our common stock.

Each agreement is effective until December 31, 2003. The agreements are automatically extended each January 1 for a new three-year period, unless we notify the officers by September 30 of the preceding year that we do not wish to extend the agreements.

Deferred Compensation and Benefits Trust

The company has established a deferred compensation and benefits trust. This trust is intended to ensure that participants and beneficiaries under our nonqualified and unfunded deferred compensation plans and the executive officer agreements will receive the benefits they have earned in the event of a change in control of the company (as defined in the plans and the agreements). The trust will not increase the benefits to which any individual participant is entitled under the covered plans and agreements. If a potential change in control occurs, the trust will be revocably funded. If an actual change in control occurs, the trust will be irrevocably funded and will pay benefits to participants in accordance with the plans and agreements. The trustee will receive fees and expenses either from us or from the trust assets. If the company becomes bankrupt or insolvent, the trust assets will be accessible to the claims of the company's creditors.

Indemnification

To the extent that Delaware law permits, we will indemnify our directors and officers against liabilities they incur in connection with actual or threatened proceedings to which they are or may become parties and which arise from their status as directors and officers. We insure, within stated limits, the directors and officers against these liabilities. The aggregate premium on the insurance policies for 2000 was $662,200.

Shareholder Proposals for the 2002 Annual Meeting

If you wish to submit a proposal to be included in our 2002 proxy statement, we must receive it no later than November 6, 2001.

All other proposals to be presented at the meeting must be delivered to our corporate secretary, in writing, no later than January 20, 2002. According to our bylaws, your notice must include:

APPENDIX A

Audit Committee Charter

RESOLVED THAT:

1. Pursuant to Section 23 of the Corporation's Bylaws, there is hereby established an Audit Committee (the "Committee") of this Board of Directors consisting of at least five members. Each member shall meet the following requirements:

- a. he or she is not an officer or employee of the Corporation;
- b. he or she has no relationship to the Corporation that may interfere with the exercise of independence from management and the Corporation;
- c. he or she is financially literate or becomes financially literate within a reasonable time following appointment to the Committee; and
- d. he or she has received adequate orientation to assure understanding of the business environment in which the Corporation operates.

In addition, at least one member of the Committee will have accounting or related financial management expertise.

2. The primary purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing: the financial reports and other financial information provided by the Corporation; the Corporation's systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance, and business standards that management and the Board have established; the scope of audit and nonaudit services provided by the independent auditor; and the Corporation's auditing, accounting, and financial reporting processes generally. In carrying out these responsibilities, the Committee shall perform the following functions:

- a. Nominate for shareholder approval each year, review, and, where appropriate, replace a firm of independent certified public accountants as the Corporation's independent auditor. The independent auditor is ultimately accountable to the Committee and the Board;
- b. Review with management and the independent auditor the audited annual financial statements to be included in the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K, recommend to the Board whether the audited annual financial statements should be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K, and review and consider with the independent auditor the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards ("SAS") No. 61, as amended;
- c. Engage the independent auditor to review interim financial statements to be included in quarterly reports on Form 10-Q in accordance with SAS No. 71. At the independent auditor's request and before the Form 10-Q is filed, if possible, discuss with the auditor, as a whole or through the Committee chairperson, any matters that may have affected the quality of the Corporation's financial reporting, including significant events, transactions, and changes in accounting estimates;
- d. Each year, request from the independent auditor a formal written statement describing all relationships between the auditor and the Corporation, discuss with the auditor all disclosed relationships and their impact on the auditor's independence, and recommend that the Board take appropriate action in response to the auditor's report to satisfy itself of the auditor's independence; and

- e. Discuss with management and the independent auditor the quality and adequacy of the Corporation's internal controls.

3. In discharging its oversight responsibilities, the Committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of the Corporation and to retain outside counsel, auditors, or other experts for this purpose.

4. Except for proposals considered by the Board, the Committee shall be responsible for reviewing any significant related party transaction (e.g., loans, sales, purchases, leases, stock purchases, ownership in subsidiaries) between the Corporation and any officer, director, or principal shareholder to determine if the transaction should be entered into, continued, or eliminated.

5. While the Committee has the oversight responsibilities and the powers set forth in this resolution, it is not the Committee's duty to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Corporation's financial statements are complete, accurate, or in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Nor is it the Committee's duty to conduct investigations to assure compliance with laws, regulations, or the Corporation's Standards of Business Conduct Policy. Management is responsible for these duties. The independent auditor is responsible for providing a report expressing its opinion regarding the Corporation's financial statements based on an audit conducted in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards.
6. The Committee shall review this resolution annually and shall recommend any changes to the Board.
7. The Committee shall meet at least twice each year, shall keep minutes and any other appropriate records of all its proceedings, and shall report on matters discussed and actions taken at the next meeting of the Board.
8. This is a standing resolution and will remain in effect until duly modified or rescinded. It shall supersede all prior resolutions of the Board or its committees with respect to the Audit Committee of this Board of Directors.
